Secure Firearm Products shooting team members triumph at Cowley Cup

Carl Junction, Mo. – Secure Firearm Products shooting team members Karl Piper, Warren Piper and Tiffany Piper dominated the Cowley Cup, held Sept. 19-20, 2009, at the Whangarei Pistol Club in New Zealand.

Karl Piper of New Zealand claimed High Master winner overall with a score of 1918 and 167X. His daughter, 15-year-old Tiffany Piper, earned Master Grade winner with a score of 1913 and 142X while Karl's son Warren Piper took second place Master Grade with a score of 1896 and 142X.

Tiffany also become the 2009 New Zealand Open Ladies champion and junior Master Grade 1st place winner while her brother Warren finished 5th overall.

Tiffany and Warren joined the Secure Firearm Products shooting team in 2008 while Karl became a member this year.

Not only is family important to Dave Surgi and his brother, who operate family-owned business Secure Firearm Products, so is passing along their love of the shooting sports.

“It is all about sponsoring the juniors, because they are our future here in the United States and in other countries,” said Dave Surgi, president of Secure Firearms Products.

The Cowley Cup, which began in 1994, attracts between 30 and 50 shooters every year to the Whangarei Pistol Club in New Zealand. The Cup offers shoots for a different grade each year including NRA Matches, High Master, Master, Expert, Sharpshooter and Marksman, allowing every shooter who participates a chance to compete regardless of ability.
