Secure Firearm Products official target for Ruger Rimfire Competitions at Media Day at the Range

CARL JUNCTION, Mo. – Secure Firearm Products (SFP) announces its participation at the Bass Pro Shops Media Day at the Range as the official target for Ruger Rimfire Competitions. Ruger will host a stage featuring SFP's static steel targets. Media Day at the Range will be held a day before the SHOT Show begins, Jan. 18, 2010, at the Boulder City Pistol and Rifle Range in Boulder City, Nev.

SFP's Dave and Tammy Surgi will be on hand at Media Day to answer questions, hand out electronic press kits and demonstrate their new target systems, which provide a variety of exciting shooting practices for recreational and competitive shooters.

Those who miss visiting with Dave and Tammy at Media Day are invited to stop by their SHOT Show booth (#1606) and register to win a high security rifle case.

One lucky winner will receive a top of the line SFP rifle case, valued at more than $550, by stopping and registering. The winner need not be present at the time of the drawing.

While you're at the booth, check out SFP's target systems and their shotgun, handgun, tactical and rifle cases with their new easy-to-use, push-button locking system.

If you'd like to schedule an appointment or test any of the Secure Firearms Products for an editorial review before the SHOT Show, contact Joe Wieczorek of The Media Group at joe@themediagroupinc.com or call (847) 956-9090.
